The Cajun Card

functions as  ............
Library Card, Copy & Printing Card, Meal Plan, Pass to Home Sporting Events, Access to assigned buildings (dorms, computer labs, recreation facility) and parking, Red Dot Discounts, and Cajun Cash card.
What is Cajun Cash?

• Cajun Cash is the term used for money deposited onto the Cajun Card. Cajun cash is a voluntary prepaid account on the card. Students can spend his/her Cajun Cash at selected locations on and off campus.

• Cajun Cash is similar to a debit card account; however you cannot get cash back.

• Cajun Cash balances roll over each semester.

• There are no fees and students cannot spend more than they have (not a credit card).

• Refunds are only available upon graduation or resigning from the University.
How to make a Deposit

• In-Office (cash, check, money order, credit/debit card)
• Over Phone (credit/debit card)
• Direct Mail (check, money order, credit/debit card)
• Automatic Deposit Machine – ADM (cash only)
  [ADM located in Dupré Library 1st floor]

Meals/Week
Meals per week are available to students Sunday through Saturday at Cypress Lake Dining Room. Meal swipes can also be used during dinner time hours at Café Fleur de Lis (Monday - Friday). Meals reset every Sunday, so any meals not used for previous week will not roll over to next (students have new set of meals each week). Please note, you have one week until after the start of the semester to change your meal plan. Meal plans can be changed at UL Lafayette Dining Services, Student Union 2nd floor next to Cypress Lake Dining Room (Cafeteria).

Declining Balance
Declining Balance Dollars (DB) are the values included in all meal plans. The declining Balance dollars can be used “just like cash” on the Cajun Card, and when used, purchase is TAX FREE. DB can be used at any of the retail dining outlets on campus that are operated by UL Lafayette Dining Services. Declining balance will carry forward from fall to spring, for students enrolled in the spring semester, and expire at the end of the academic year. You can always add additional declining balance, in increments of $25, by visiting UL Lafayette Dining Services’ website, http://ULLafayette.sodexomyway.com/shop.

Students with meal plans should always make sure to tell the cashier what form of payment he/she is using and get his/her receipt after payment. Receipts will show balance after purchase. If a student has both DB and Cajun Cash on his/her Cajun Card, then declining balance is deducted first since it expires and Cajun Cash does not.

To Know
All UL Lafayette Dining locations accept credit cards, cash, declining balance, and Cajun Cash. Meal Plans and declining balance accounts can be checked online through the Cajun Card website, http://cajuncard.louisiana.edu. Students must create a PIN number to check his/her account statement.

For resident students required to purchase a meal plan, purchases must be made through UL Lafayette Housing Department. Any meal plan subsequent of their initial purchase can be purchased via UL Lafayette Dining Services’ website. All meal plans are available online. The Freedom Plan is available “exclusively” on the website, http://ULLafayette.sodexomyway.com/shop.
