

COLLEGE 101

FOR UL LAFAYETTE PARENTS & FAMILY

LEE HALL ACADEMIC SUPPORT OFFICES

Lee Hall, conveniently located in the UL Lafayette Quad, is a campus building completely devoted to student support services. If Lee Hall does not offer the services your student needs, the staff here knows exactly where to send them. Lee Hall is a very important location that your student should be familiar with throughout their time at UL Lafayette. Lee Hall is located in sections C6 and D6 on the University's campus map.

Office of First-Year Experience

The Office of First-Year Experience is dedicated to assisting first-year students with their transition to UL Lafayette through UNIV 100 \(First-Year Seminar\). This three-credit-hour course helps students begin their collegiate journey.

Through UNIV 100, first-year students are introduced to collegiate-level learning, connected to campus resources, and encouraged to build community within their class. The course engages students in meaningful inquiry and activities that develop core cognitive skills such as critical thinking, information literacy, and oral and written communication skills.

UNIV 100 COURSE COMPONENTS

1

Cajun Connection is an introduction to UL Lafayette, academic work, and the campus community. All first-year students will complete Cajun Connection in their first UNIV 100 class session on August 17.

2

First-Year Seminar is a fifteen-week theme or topic-based course chosen by the student. The course engages students in meaningful inquiry and activities that develop core cognitive skills.

Academic Success Center

The Academic Success Center (ASC) assists students in making a successful academic transition to the University of Louisiana at Lafayette. Located in Lee Hall, the Academic Success Center is our top resource for academic support services. Professional academic advisors are happy to talk with your student about any various academic challenges or questions they may have including:

- How to meet academic standards in the college classroom
- Major options suitable to their interests and goals
- Academic advising to assist in course planning
- And much more!

The Academic Success Center also offers a number of administrative services to students, such as major changes and dropping a class with a "W" (also known as "withdrawing" from a class) once the semester has begun. The advisors are here to help your student be successful!

Important Notes about Major Changes

Students who would like to change their major before attending Orientation can do so online by submitting a New Student Change of Major Form. To access the form, the student will need to log in with their ULID and password.

Students who have already attended Orientation and wish to change their major must contact the Academic Success Center. A change of major request can be initiated in person (Lee Hall 115) or through the virtual appointment system.

The Learning Center

Free tutoring for undergraduate students is offered through The Learning Center, located on the second floor of Lee Hall. The Learning Center strives to ensure that all students succeed academically by offering a variety of tutoring services, including:

- Study Groups
- Supplemental Instruction
- Individual Tutoring

Additionally, The Learning Center collaborates with the Office of Distance Learning to provide consultation and support for online tutoring services, offered through NetTutor, for online undergraduate students.

The Learning Center's tutoring services are certified by the College Reading and Learning Association (CRLA) and the Supplemental Instruction program is accredited by the International Center for Supplemental Instruction.
